Article 1 (Purpose)

The purpose of this Act is to promote convenience in the lives of residents and to properly process administrative affairs by clearly ascertaining the residential situation of residents and the movement of the population through the registration of residents residing in each Si (excluding the Special Metropolitan City and Metropolitan Cities, but including a Special Self-Governing Province; hereinafter the same shall apply), Gun or Gu (referring to an autonomous Gu; hereinafter the same shall apply). <Amended by Act No. 9574, Apr. 1, 2009>

Article 2 (Control over Administrative Affairs)

(1) The head of each Si (excluding the Special Metropolitan City Mayor and Metropolitan Cities Mayors, but including the Governor of a Special Self-Governing Province; hereinafter the same shall apply), Gun or Gu (the head of a Gu refers to the head of an autonomous Gu; hereinafter the same shall apply) shall have the authority to control administrative affairs for the registration of residents. <Amended by Act No. 9574, Apr. 1, 2009>

(2) The head of a Si/Gun/Gu may delegate part of the authority conferred upon him/her by paragraph (1), to the head of a Gu (limited to the head of a non-autonomous Gu), Eup, Myeon, Dong, or branch office, as prescribed by municipal ordinance of the relevant local government.

Article 3 (Supervision, etc.)
