

Useful websites for Infographic design.

Online tools for designing infographics from templates.

1. www.snappa.com

Free version provides:

600,000+ HD photos & graphics
5,000+ templates
5 downloads per month
2 social accounts

2. www.visme.co

Free version provides:

Up to 5 Projects
100 MB Storage
Limited Templates
Download as JPG
Some Charts & Widgets
Public Projects

Free Opensource Graphic Design Software (in no particular order).

1. www.inkscape.com
2. www.designer.io
3. www.vectr.com
4. www.gimp.org

Free Opensource materials for infographics (icons, graphics)

1. www.freepik.com

A website that provides free templates for infographics (in the vector format that can be used by any graphic design software)

2. www.blugraphic.com

A website that provides free templates for infographics (in the vector format that can be used by any graphic design software).

3. www.theknownproject.com

A website that provides free icons and illustrations (both in JPEG and as a vector graphic).

“How to use” suggestions:

1. Open www.freepik.com or www.blugraphic.com
2. Search for “infographics” in the search bar
3. Choose an infographic template you like
4. Save it on your computer.
5. Open it in any of the Free Opensource Graphic Design Software by drag and dropping. (You can use any other graphic design software of your choice)
5. Redesign and personalise the template to create your infographic.
6. Export/ download your infographic.

Subscription-based online tools to design infographics from templates (in no particular order).

www.piktochart.com
www.visme.co
www.canva.com
www.infogram.com
www.venngage.com