

Asia-Pacific CRVS Research Forum

3–4 April 2023 | Bangkok, Thailand

Speaker bio: Professor Maria Midea M Kabamalan

Professor Maria Midea M Kabamalan is working at the University of the Philippines Population Institute. She will be presenting research on the Male-female disparities due to premature mortality in the Philippines which she is working on in collaboration with colleagues from the Philippine Statistics Authority. Aside from this, she also do research on marriage and cohabitation, and nonmarital fertility and have been using the CRVS data for analysis. Most recently, she has coordinated research projects on the Young Adult Fertility and Sexuality Study and the National Migration Survey in the Philippines. More information about this research projects and the Institute's work is available on this website.